

Baltic and North Atlantic Pottery Research Group
5th meeting in Bonn 11-12 April 2024

PROGRAM: 15 min paper + 5 for discussion

THURSDAY, 11.04.

8.30–9.00 Registration

9.00–9.15 Welcome words

1st session

01: 9.15-9.35 – Volker Demuth, Pottery in a changing world – how to relate archaeological research on ceramics to contemporary academic trends?

02: 9.35-9.55 – Sebastiaan Ostkamp & Aleike van de Venne, The Deventer system as a tool

03: 9.55-10.15 – Martin Rogier, Observations on stick-powered potter's wheels based on practical experience

04: 10.15-10.35 – Michael Lingohr, Keramik als Politikum. „Religiöses Brauchgut“ im Dienst katholischer Selbstbewahrung im Nationalsozialismus

COFFEE BREAK

2nd session

05: 11.00-11.20 – Alise Gunnarson, Medieval pottery from Koknese castle as signifier of the dominant trade relations

06: 11.20-11.40 – Riikka Tevali, Pottery as a trade good

07: 11.40-12.00 – Maxime Poulain, Medieval German presence in the Zwin harbour system as seen through ceramics

08: 12.00-12.20 – Jesper Langkilde, Medieval pottery from the episcopal town of Roskilde, Denmark

09: 12.20-12.40 – Derek Hall, Stoneware pottery in Scotland and Ireland

LUNCH

BNPG5 SCHEDULE

3rd session

10: 14.00-14.20 – Stephanie Rátkai, Crowland Abbey Ware: what is it, where is it and why is it?

11: 14.20-14.40 – Yannick Signer, Potting landscapes: a novel approach to study the development of pottery production in the medieval landscapes of Northern England

12: 15.00-15.20 – Detlef Wilke, Christian Röser & Christoph Keller, The multitude of yellow iron painted earthenwares - geochemical provenancing of high medieval Rhenish pottery

13: 15.20-15.40 – Niels Jennes, Vince Van Thienen, Elly Heirbaut, Rhenish-style pottery production in the Kempen area (Flanders, Belgium)

14: 15.40-16.00 – Christoph Keller, Langerwehe – An overview on 850 years of pottery production

16.00-16.15 – NEXT MEETING, MANAGING ISSUES

16.15-18.00(ish) – A view of finds from production sites in the Rhineland.

20.00 OFFICIAL DINNER AT "Em Höttche" Markt 4, Bonn. <https://em-hoettche.de/>

FRIDAY, 12.04.

15: 9.00-9.20 (8.40-9.00) – Rachel King, The new Thomas Bequest of German Stoneware at the British Museum: Examining a Time Capsule

16: 9.20-9.40 (9.00-9.20) – Marion Roehmer, Erki Russow. Renaissance-era Siegburg Stoneware in Estonia: Finds and Sites, Motifs and Messages

17: 9.40-10.00 (9.20-9.40) – Stefanie Bilz, A world of images in shards. Stove tiles from the late Gothic period in Saxony

18: 10.00-10.20 (9.40-10.00) – Joakim Kjellberg, Erik Johansson and Torbjörn Brorsson, Medieval glazed redware from Uppsala, Sweden – local production or import?

19: 10.20-10.40 (10.00-10.20) – Arvi Haak, Erki Russow, Ceramic cupels in Tartu and Tallinn

COFFEE BREAK

20: 11.15-11.35 (11.00-11.20) – Mathias Bäck & Georg Haggrén, Putting together the very first and the latest pottery find from Turku, Finland

21: 11.35-11.55 (11.20-11.40) – Ilze Reinfelds, Assemblage of Ceramic vessels from Latrine filling in Riga, Mārstaļu Street: Example of Rigaers' Household Culture in 17th - 18th century.

22: 11.55-12.15 (11.40-12.00) – Michał Starski, A well set of finds. Assortment of ceramic vessels from a well in Puck, Gdańsk Pomerania from 17th and 18th ct.

BNPG5 SCHEDULE

23: 12.15-12.35 (12.00-12.20) – Sören Pfeiffer, Lyn Blackmore, Torbjörn Brorsson, Nigel Jeffries, Vanessa Harding, Christoph Keller, Natascha Mehler, Erik Odegard, Jacqui Pearce, Marion Roehmer, Christian Röser, Michael Schmauder, Bly Straube, Bartmann goes global – from the Rhineland into the world

LUNCH

24: 14.00-14.20 – Robert Bergman Carter, Red clay tobacco pipes made in Gothenburg in the 1630s

25: 14.20-14.40 – Natascha Mehler, Clay pipes and tobacco in Orkney and Shetland: understanding global trade and consumption

26: 14.40-15.00 – Vaiana Vincent, A century of earthenware production in Lille through ten years of urban archaeological operations

27: 15.00-15.20 – Thomas Kersting, Ceramics in NS Camp Contexts

COFFEE BREAK

28: 16.00-16.20 – Maija Helamaa, The other ceramic objects – a case study from an early modern town

29: 16.20-16.40 – Vineta Skalberga, An Overview of the Pottery Collection at Bauska Castle (16th-17th century)

30: 16.40-17.00 – Anders Hartwig, Frauke Witte, The use and distribution of stoneware in North Slesvig

31: 17.00-17.20 – Veronica Forsblom Ljungdahl, Jeanette Gustavsson & Tom Wennberg, Import of Chinese porcelain to Gothenburg by the Swedish East India Company 1735-1806

POSTERS (Size A1, 841x594 mm).

Magdalena Bis, Workshops and wares. Current state of research on the slipware in post-medieval Poland

Torbjörn Brorsson & Sonia Jeffery, The medieval pottery from Lödöse in western Sweden – a cultural historical and scientific study.

Niels Jennes, A new 9th/10th century regional production from the eastern part of Flanders, Belgium?

BNPG5 SCHEDULE

SATURDAY, 13.04. Excursion to Westerwald and Siegburg (extra charge of 30 EUR)

- Preliminary program

8.30 - Departure from Bonn

10.00 Visit of the Museum at Höhr-Grenzhausen, Westerwald. Annette Zeischka-Kenzler will kindly give a guided tour of the museum

12.00 transfer to Siegburg and lunch in Siegburg

14.30/15.00 Visit of the City Museum Siegburg. Marion Roehmer will give a 2 h guided tour.

17.00 return to Bonn

Trains:

There are trains from Siegburg/Bonn (Siegburg station) to Frankfurt (M) Flughafen Fernbf. (airport train station):

Siegburg 14:17 > Frankfurt 15:09

Siegburg 15:25 > Frankfurt 16:06

Siegburg 16:19 > Frankfurt 17:50